Dear Magistrate Fox:

With respect to the above case, I have what appears to be a CD that has been forwarded to me by plaintiff's counsel. Plaintiff's counsel has informed that in order to open up this CD, I need to have Microsoft Word or Microsoft Outlook 2003. I do not have that on my computer.

Plaintiff's counsel has repeatedly informed me that he will provide me with the Microsoft program that I need in order to open the CD. As of this date, April 7, 2008, I have not received that material. Thus, the CD that I have is useless to me.

I cannot go forward in good conscience with depositions in this matter until I have reviewed the discovery material that has been provided on the CD. I strongly request your office's assistance in this matter.

4/7/08

Very truly yours,

A telephonic conference, initiated by counsel to the plaintiff, will be held with the attorney on April 8, 2008, at 11:30 a.m.

SO ORDERED:

Kevin Nathaniel Fox, U.S.M.J.
